Keepataw Parade, Midway Lure Thousands

LEMONT -- The Lemont Jaycees will present the 20th annual Keepataw Days celebration this coming Saturday through Monday.

The three-day community carnival will officially get underway at 6 p.m. on Saturday with the opening of the Main St. midway from State to Stephen St. Total of 12 rides and scores of booths will be available, for a real "FUN" period for all age groups.

On Sunday the midway hours will begin at 1 p.m., and run into the late evening hours. Labor Day, Monday, the big parade will move off at 1 p.m., with Archie Abrams, a longtime civic leader, as grand marshal.

Bill Bromberek, Jaycees co-ordinator, stated, "along with the biggest midway that Keepataw Days has had, there will be entertainment on the carnival grounds throughout the festival."

On Saturday evening there will be a young people's group called "The Shadow Mountain," and on Sunday there will be the Jack Charles Trio. Following the parade on Monday, there will be a one-hour concert by the A.R. McAllister Memorial Band, whose services are being donated by the Lemont Chamber of Commerce. On Monday evening entertainment will be provided by Jimmy Gross and his Bango Band.

Prizes to be awarded this year include first prize of $1,500; $1,000 second prize; and $500 third prize.

Insofar as the big Keepataw Days Parade, Dave Garvey and Mike O'Brien, co-chairman, insist that this year's parade will be the biggest and best of all.

Officials of the sponsoring Lemont Jaycees are estimative that thousands of people will come to Lemont to watch the parade.

For the numerous trophies to be awarded, parade units will pass a reviewing stand where their beauty and marching skills will be evaluated and choices made on the winners.

Parade route will be as it has in the past years, starting from Ceco Rd. and Stephen St., south to Main St., east to the corner of Main and Illinois St., west on Illinois to State St., disbanding at the corner of State and Main.

Keepataw Days in Lemont are truly unique in that it is a community project. Although the Jaycees sponsor the event, all of the civic organizations take part in running the actual carnival. There will be approximately 17 groups involved in manning the rides and booths on the midway, with all of them sharing in the profits.

All in all, officials of the Lemont Jaycees are looking forward to one of the biggest and best Keepataw celebrations of them all, and invite all of the readers of the Southwest Graphic to come and join them this weekend for the greatest three-day celebration in the entire area.

Ask Sewer Bids

LEMONT -- Members of the Lemont Board of Trustees are seeking bids for the installation of a 42-inch storm sewer on village streets. Bids will be publicly opened and read at the Sept. 8 meeting of the board.

The sewer system will be installed on State St. from Keepataw to Weimer; Weimer St. from State to Walter;

NEW POSITION -- Kenneth Webster, left, administrative assistant for Lockport Township High School District 205, discusses his new position with his former supervisor, Ray Page, superintendent of public instruction, at the recent annual conference. Webster was guest of honor at a luncheon sponsored by the staff members in the Department of Pupil Personnel Services.

Program Is Evaluated, Give Full Recognition

LOCKPORT -- Ray Page, superintendent of public instruction, extended full recognition to Lockport High School District 205 for 1968-69. The decision was based upon an evaluation of the total educational program.

In his letter to Harold Scholle, superintendent of District 205, Page emphasized the importance of the school board making every effort to maintain adequate educational opportunities for the young people of the district. This is possible only through professional leadership and cooperative efforts of the community and school staff, Page asserted.

Page said, "The community has entrusted the board and superintendent with the serious responsibility of providing for the education and training of its youth. Educational program must keep pace with the increased demand of society upon our young people."

Such recognition is granted after an evaluation which includes any visitations by state supervisors, a careful study of the annual report, a review of conditions from previous visitations, and the recommendation of the county superintendent.

A special certificate was presented for each high school in the district.

THERE ARE TWO reasons why one sees detour signs on U.S. 30 and U.S. 6 (159th St.) telling motorists how to get back to U.S. 45. The other reason is a sign like this one. This sign is just a few yards north of 191st St., east of Mokena. The other sign is at 179th St. Paving of this new section of U.S. 45 that spans I-80 should be finished and the road in use around the first of October. Weather permitting, of course.

Weigh Difference Carpets Would Make

FRANKFORT -- Teachers will report for a workshop Aug. 28 but pupils of Frankfort grade schools will not come in until the following Tuesday, Sept. 2. That will be for a short session. The full schedule of classes will resume Sept. 3.

The board of education is to hold its next meeting Sept. 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the library at Frankfort School and will deal with any problems which may arise with the beginning of a new school year.

At its last meeting the board conferred with Frank Goetschel, maintenance superintendent of Lincoln-Way High School, on floor coverings. The board is expected to decide soon whether it will make use of carpeting or tile in some of the rooms in Chelsea addition and in some of the spaces at Frankfort School.

It is said there is not much difference in the initial cost but study is being given to maintenance figures. Carpeting is winning approval in many public buildings, it was said.

At Frankfort, for example, it has been customary to strip the floors of wax twice a year and then re-seal and refinish them. There are also other applications of wax made in the course of a year. Carpeting is shampooed once a year, it was said. The board is studying the comparative cost figures.

Superintendent Leroy M. Olson was authorized by the board to purchase lunchroom tables for Chelsea School. Increased enrollment at the school makes these tables necessary, it was said. It will also be easier and faster to convert the multipurpose room into a gym when such tables are used, it was stated.

Olson reported that the health department has approved the water samples taken from both schools.

The board spent some time in discussing the Frankfort district's obligation to provide rooms for special education classes within the next few years. Currently these special classes are housed in the New Lenox and Manhattan systems.

Plan Finances For Dist. 205

By ANN KARKUT

LOCKPORT -- It took the Lockport High School District 205 board 30 minutes in executive session to decide which architect they would hire. The board had three recommendations from Superintendent Harold Scholle at a recent session. Six architects had been interviewed.

Alexander, Borkon, Westphal and DeYoung of Joliet will be the new architects.

Superintendent Scholle said the district took out $1,410,000 in tax anticipation warrants the past year in four sales. He requested authorization to sell the warrants this year all at one time and to have the treasurer invest the monies in short term notes. Board approved his request.

An interfund loan of $50,000 from the building fund to the educational fund was approved.

District 205 board will cancel the remaining one year lease and purchase 28 new typewriters for the business education department at $3,500.36 with payments spread over three years.

Four dictaphones will be purchased for the West High business department at $1,200 over a three year period. Previously they had been on a rental basis.

Fuel oil bid was awarded to the low bidder, Standard Oil. Other bid received was from Pure Oil. Board was polled with Steve Platko, Bill Walden, Joan Straka and Bill Brill, president, voting yes. Tom Wilson and Felix Borio voted no. Borio said he does not go against the low bidder but would have liked to see the local company receive the bid.

A previous proposal for a like-new driving simulator unit was withdrawn, said Scholle. He said the board had approved a cost of not more than $28,000 with $13,003 coming from the county highway department. If another staff member is not needed, he said the 12-simulator unit would be installed at West High, otherwise it will be given to East High.

Scholle's recommendation to annex West High into the village of Romeoville was tabled until the board could get a legal opinion. Several board members felt there might be some overlapping of local governmental bodies.

John Cirricione was rehired as school board at-

Plan For Mokena Teachers

MOKENA -- Teachers of Mokena School Dist. 159 will be attending opening-of-school workshops. On Aug. 27 a workshop will be held for the new teachers in the district and on Aug. 28 a workshop will be held for all instructional personnel.

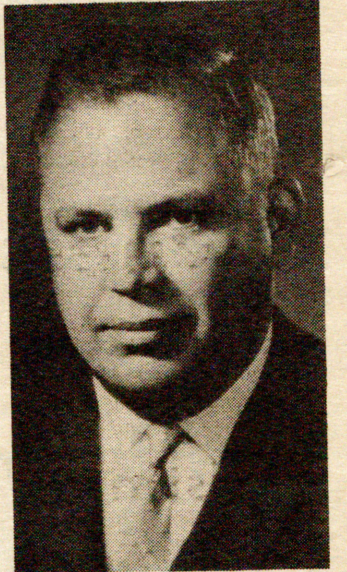

The Aug. 28 workshop will cover such areas as audio-visual materials, use of maps and globes and use of phonics materials in the primary grades.

Among consultants who will participate is from the Mokena staff, Richard Quinn. He will discuss the "uses of the various Audio-visual machines" owned by the district. Quinn is A-V Director for District 159.

torney with a $900 salary effective Aug. 1. He will be required to attend only business meetings. His retainer fee is $25 per hour.

The board approved Joseph Coverdill, staff member, as the adult evening school director at a $400 salary with a one year appointment.

A summer school director at $1,500 will be named later. The position will be offered to staff members.

O.C. DAVIS, Frankfort, has been named president of Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America, with headquarters in Chicago. He is a graduate of Texas A & M. In addition to gas industry organizations he is a member of the University Club of Chicago, and the Executives Club of Chicago. He and his wife, Sherry, have two sons.

RAYMOND MCCOY was recently appointed to foreman, zone-maintenance, at Texaco's Lockport plant. Employed since 1946, the majority of McCoy's service has been in the yard and delayed coking departments. In recent years he periodically served as relief foreman. McCoy resides at 1306 Colorado Ave., Joliet.

Bride-To-Be Dies In Crash On Wedding Day

LOCKPORT -- A bride-to-be was killed in the early hours of her wedding day and the man she was to marry is in Silver Cross Hospital in serious condition.

The tragedy occurred a few minutes after midnight last Saturday morning on 159th St. near the intersection with Cedar Rd., not far from the girl's home. The couple had been attending a wedding rehearsal and had stopped at the VFW Club rooms east of Lockport to check on final arrangements for the reception that was to have been held there after the wedding Saturday.

They continued on their way then and near Cedar Rd. the car ran off the pavement, glanced off three mail boxes and a tree and then struck the corner of a house.

Fire broke out, apparently in the middle of the car, but did not ignite the house.

The bride-to-be, Sandra Kelm, 24, 159th St., Homer Township, was trapped in the car. She suffered a broken neck, and was believed to have been instantly killed so did not suffer from the burns. An inquest will be held. The man, Joseph Kalous, 24, of 227 Pinecrest Rd., Bolingbrook, was thrown clear of the car.

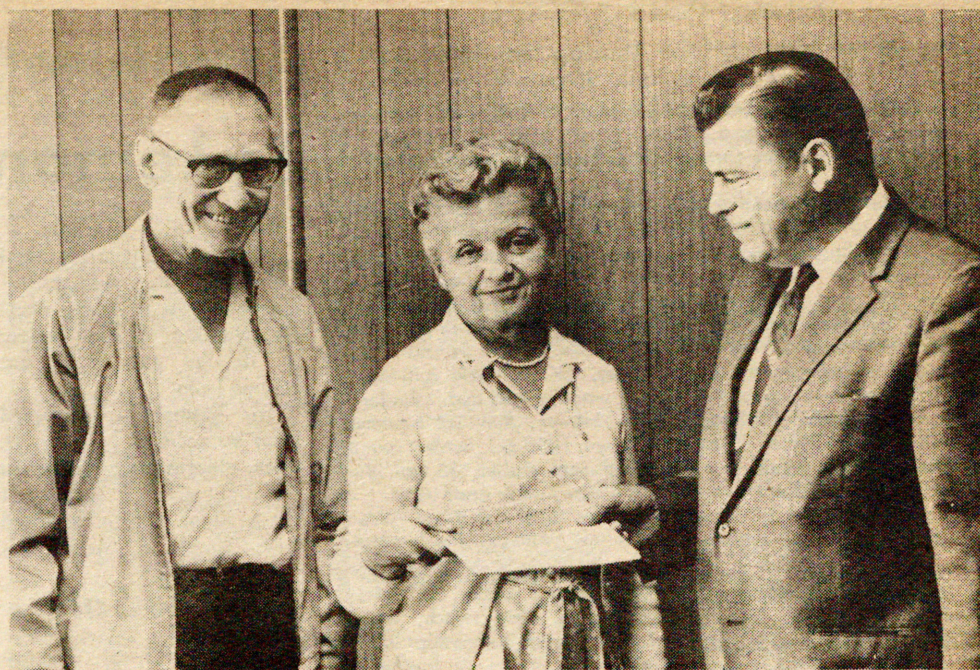

Born June 6, 1945 in Joliet, the young woman was a lifelong resident of Homer Township. A 1963 graduate of Lockport Central High School, she had been employed six years as a bookkeeper for The First National Bank of Lockport and was a member of the International Bowling Congress.

Her fiancé, Kalous, is a graduate of Morton West High School and is employed as a mechanic at Egizio's Chevrolet in Naperville.

The victim of the crash was the daughter of Elmer W. and Helen Kelm. Also surviving are two sisters, Diane, Mrs. George Hallis, and Kathleen; one brother, Elmer Jr., all of Homer Township, and her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Alvina Kelm.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday (Aug. 26) from the Goodale Funeral Home, Lockport, at 9:30 o'clock to St. Joseph Church at 10, with interment in Resurrection Cemetery, Romeoville.

Owners Fume Over Driveway Repair Quality

By Bev. Smutnak
CREST HILL--Several irate homeowners from Naejack's subdivision came to the city council meeting Monday

Christmas Is Early

WILL COUNTY -- It's early for Christmas but getting late for gifts for Viet Nam servicemen.

Will County regional Red Cross recently issued an appeal to have all gift bags promised for the current Operation Shop Early project in the hands of the Red Cross by Sept. 1.

Bags will be packed in cartons at the Will County Red Cross headquarters at 222 N. Broadway, Joliet. They will then be delivered to the Mid-America Red Cross Chapter in Chicago to begin the long trip to South Vietnam. Shipping date from Chicago is Sept. 15.

Will County plans to send 1,500 gift bags. The bags will contain about 18 small items and a card bearing the name and address of its donor.

Is New Events Director

LOCKPORT -- Robert Blackburn, 2316 Glenwood Green, Joliet, is director of special events at Lewis College. Appointment was made by Brother Paul French, FSC, Lewis president.

Blackburn will coordinate and schedule the use of all campus facilities by college and outside groups, coordinate all special events and handle audio-visual arrangements.

He will work in the development office and devote some time to alumni activities.

A 1968 Lewis graduate, he has a bachelor of arts degree in political science, and was teaching the past year at Montini High School in Lombard.

He is married to the former Georgeen O'Reilly.

to complain about alleged poor workmanship and shoddy repairs made to their driveways by the Foschi Construction Company.

Foschi, contractor for the city, who installed sewer and water service in the area and tore up the property then, is now in the process of restoring the property to the original condition. Owners think otherwise.

They claim Foschi's work is "inferior," materials are inferior, and "amateurs" are doing the blacktopping. They all state the work is most unacceptable to them.

Four residents of Heiden Ave. expressed dissatisfaction with Foschi's work and told council they wanted all the work redone. Alderman Dale Sealy, who was called to the area by the residents to inspect Foschi's work, agreed with the residents' complaints.

John Brozevich of 1605 Heiden Ave., speaking for himself and his son-in-law, Vincent Brandolino, also a Heiden Ave. resident, said, "I want them to pull out all the blacktopping and put in a decent job." He said "you can walk on the 'new' driveways and your feet will sink in and leave footprints, and you can even chip away at the surface with your shoe."

He alleged, "They (Foschi) wrecked my curbing when they installed the sewer tiles, and I was even willing to overlook this, but when I told the Foschi employees about the poor work they were now doing, I was told I was going to have to take it (the work) and like it." He continued, "I want a good job."

Owners asked Bob Hamilton, city engineer, about the quality of the materials used. Hamilton replied he was sure the materials were of good quality.

Residents, however, wanted the clay spots covering the surfaces of driveways explained. Mike Marjasevich of 1614 Heiden Ave. said, "I do not want a patch job." He also told council of Foschi's alleged failure to install sewer tiles up to his property line. When he told Foschi's employees about the four foot shortage, they gave him a couple tiles to install himself, the man alleged.

Frank Fajfar of 1621 Heiden Ave., expressed similar dissatisfactions.

Tony Alberico, 1608 Barthelene, told council he also wanted the previously sodded area that fronted his property restored to original condition.

Hamilton assured residents that Foschi's contract with the city called for replacement of everything as it was. He said Foschi is to abide by the specifications for the job before he will be paid. City is withholding $7,000 upon completion of the work to owners satisfaction.

Alderman Richard Colombo motioned council to issue a directive to Foschi to get the work done to owners satisfaction, and in two weeks. Project was originally set to be complete in 120 days. Work began last December and is now dragging into September, a total of nine months already.

In other action, council approved the purchase of a VASCAR unit for the police department.

Add To Sludge Acreage

ROMEOVILLE -- Approximately seven acres of land were purchased by Romeoville trustees at last Wednesday's meeting. Julius Dorich, commissioner of public works, recommended the purchase be made. The land is at the north end of the present sanitary facility owned by the village, and is to be used for more sludge beds.

Bids for a street department tractor, two way radios and radios for the police department were opened and were turned over to various committees for study. Selected bids will be announced at the next meeting.

A new flag and stand will be purchased for the Council Room of the Civic Center.

Len Kolpacki, finance chairman, announced a meeting for Aug. 27 at 7 p.m. Recreation board members will meet with trustees at 8 p.m. on Aug. 26. Both meetings will be in the Civic Center.

Next regular village board meeting will be on Sept. 3, at 7:30 p.m.

WHILE VISITING THEIR uncle, S/Sgt. Jay P. Hanrahan, in Enid, Okla., the children of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schroeder of 1030 Crestview Dr., Lemont, were playing in the pool when a photographer caught the happy scene. It seems that the day before the "fun in the water" the temperature had dropped to the lowest point in the past 43 years. The children are (l to r) Natalee, age 6; Nena, 8; and Corey, age 5. Their Uncle Jay is presently stationed at Vance Air Force Base in Oklahoma.

Consider New System In Paying

NEW LENOX -- It is possible that when the village board meets next Wednesday night (Sept. 3) new arrangements will be made for payment of sewer service bills.

Sewer bills have been paid at the New Lenox State Bank. It is being considered now to have the bills paid at the village hall.

It was also pointed out at the meeting that sewer users who have had liens filed against their property for being delinquent in meeting their service charges should make certain the liens have been released when the bill is paid.

There is a form for this and there is also a fee at the courthouse. There is a filing fee and a release fee.

With the growth of New Lenox and the corresponding growth in village business the present quarters in the village hall are becoming somewhat cramped. The board is considering using a school room now for its public meetings.

William Cox, the village business manager, reported to the board that the premises on S. Cedar St., south of Roy St., have been cleared of trash and debris.

Last Friday the job was completed with the junk cars that had cluttered the lot hauled away. The owner of this lot was James R. Kasallis but title to the property was held in trust.

The village board is to take bids soon on a tractor.

Payment of $582.32 was allowed Sarris Construction Co. to complete a bill of $13,981.60 for installation of a chlorinator installed at the sewage treatment plant, upon presentation of a contractor's affidavit that there are no liens.

The state water board ordered the village to install the chlorinator.

Business Manager Cox reported that work was progressing satisfactorily on the repair of the Cedar St. crossing of the Rock Island tracks.

Play of jointed rails cause most wear and tear at grade crossings, Cox said, and the new rails for the Cedar St. crossing are ribbon-like, with no joints.

Argonne Complains To Lemont Board

LEMONT -- Donald P. O'Neill of Argonne National Laboratory, met with the village board at a recent meeting, wanting to know where all of the gas fumes are coming from.

His complaint stemmed from an accident on July 30, when chlorine gas fumes in the air caused a section of the Argonne Lab to be closed down. Employees were given treatment with oxygen after the fumes became so great.

Mayor John J. Kujawa informed O'Neill that the fumes on that day "seemed to be coming from K.A. Steele, the Steele Company. No smell entered the village, therefore assuming that it all went your way."

Discussion on what will be done about the excessive amounts of fumes in the air was conducted by the board, the village pollution committee and village residents in the audience.

Mayor Kujawa asked O'Neill if he knew of any way that facilities at the lab could be used to help measure the gas fumes in the air, or help monitor the blasting that is being conducted in the village.

O'Neill reported that he was not sure at this time.

GERALD RODEGHIERO, 1612 Madison, Lockport, has joined the development office of Lewis College in Lockport. He will be responsible for annual support campaigns of alumni, parents and friends of the college. A 1969 Lewis accounting graduate, he is married and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rodeghiero, 115 Jefferson, Lockport. He served four years in the Navy after high school graduation.

School Board Adopts Budget

BY BEVERLY SMUTNAK
CREST HILL -- With the official audit showing District 88 worth $1,433,546.75 in land and equipment, the Chaney-Monge School board adopted a budget for the new fiscal year calling for $680,534.74 in expenditures.

Budget was called "fiscally sound and balanced," by Superintendent A.L. Carpentier. "Unfortunately most funds will be expended," he added. Carpentier praised the board members for their efforts and said, "Needless to say, well over half a million dollars is represented here and you seven men are responsible to spend the education money wisely."

Budget includes: Educational fund, $513,200; building fund, $42,000; bond and interest fund, $58,976.22; IMRF, $6,000; site and construction, $15,358.52; and working cash, $45,009.

Board voted unanimously for a levy totaling $234,000 to implement their new budget. Education fund levy is $180,000; building, $40,000;

IMRF, $6,000, and fire and life safety, $40,000. New levy is $3,000 more than last year's levy. A supplemental levy was recommended in the audit report.

In other action the board okayed the Lockport Park District's request to hold a sports program at Chaney this year to include boxing, basketball, wrestling and ice skating. However, they turned down a request for a woman's slim and trim program at Monge School.

Board policy does not permit the use of Monge gym to the public. On the availability of Chaney gym, Carpentier commented on the tight scheduling. He added, "It is not fair to give the Park District all these days, with other groups who also use the gym." President Barone said the last request should be taken under advisement.

Nelson Heating and Air Conditioning of Oak Lawn was awarded the contract to install a water heater at Chaney for $1,686.65. John Morello of Crest Hill is the firm's local representative.

This was the second bidding on the job. Last month the board rejected a bid of $2,570 from Naal Plumbing as too high. Their bid efforts saved taxpayers $900.

Mrs. Clare Wagner, head of the board sponsored distance swim program held at Chaney Pool this summer, reported 130 children and adults participated in the program. Distance swim program will conclude with the closing of the pool Labor Day.

Monge principal, Donald Weber, demonstrated the new date processing system he has been working on this summer. System will be implemented at Monge this fall to schedule students by ability.

With data processing, Weber feels the student needs are better met. Students will be scheduled in level groups, basic, average and advanced. Data processing cut the work of hand scheduling from three people to one person, reducing man hours.

Carpentier announced schedules for grades first through fifth are posted at Chaney School. Parents may call during school hours to check the lists if they wish. Kindergarten parents will be notified by mail of their child's schedule.

Open Letter from the HIRSCHS'

Dear friends,

In adding new equipment, we often think we have reached the final requirements, but it does not work out that way.

New methods and developments constantly present themselves in the funeral director's profession, and these changes call for further investment on our part.

We believe, however, that the public appreciates and benefits from these continuing improvements.

Respectfully,

Marking A Season

Here it comes. One of the biggest week-end holidays of the year. Labor Day week-end brings to all Americans an end of the summer break period, a time for fun and recreation before getting into busy fall schedules.

Persons and organizations in the Southwest area take an especially active part in creating opportunities for a fun-filled weekend. Celebrations are planned in a number of communities.

Each year the Original Lemont Jaycees, with the cooperation of other civic organizations, plan the annual Keepataw Days celebration honoring the village. Fun, carnival rides and games are offered for the full weekend to all. Each year's celebration turns out to be bigger and better than the previous year.

In Frankfort, a two-day festival on

The persons and organizations who work so hard to support all these efforts to have a rewarding, memorable holiday have earned the thanks of the many who come to share the fun. We add our "well done," and "See you there!"

Parade is the word in Hampton Park and vicinity. It will be the ninth year for the marchers in Romeoville, and this year they are part of an expanded Labor Day celebration. Sky diving, square dancing, fair booths and many other attractions are featured in the Saturday-Sunday event. Saturday and Sunday draws wide attention. Service, civic and church organizations combine their best talents. Highlights are a flea market, art fair, athletic contests, and combined church services. It's good old fashioned fun and relaxation for the whole family.

Use Care, Calm Have Safe Holiday

Motorists will do well to use a double portion of courtesy and commonsense this weekend. For one thing it is Labor Day and for another it marks the beginning of the 1969-70 school year.

Labor Day comes first, of course, with school opening falling on Sept. 2.

State and local authorities, as well as safety groups and insurance companies, are urging the motorists to use care. As a sort of after thought these various agencies also urge pedestrians and bike riders to use a spot of care too.

There are a lot of motorists and motorcycle riders who are careless and selfish. They use streets and roads as if they were private property. And there are pedestrians and bike riders similarly obsessed.

Perhaps some day there will be computers devised that will screen off the careless drivers and walkers and divert them to special routes where they can stage elimination contests.

Meanwhile, the motorist should drive very, very carefully. He may manage to get an acquittal in a civil suit but rarely does he escape an arrest ticket.

The Fourth of July holiday -- from 6 p.m. July 3 until midnight, July 6 -- accounted for 24 deaths in Illinois this year, the same number as in 1968 when the holiday extended through July 7, according to the Chicago Motor Club. The club staged a "Bring 'Em Back Alive" campaign this year. It has renewed the campaign to cover the Labor Day weekend.

The "Bring 'Em Back Alive" theme must have helped for figures show the four June weekends stretched to the length of the Fourth of July holiday had more traffic fatalities. Perhaps in time education in safety practices will reduce the number substantially.

Safety education in the schools has certainly paid off in reducing accidents for school children, statistics show, and the motor club's school safety patrol deserves a lot of the credit.

This safety patrol idea was inaugurated 49 years ago by the motor club and in his proclamation urging observance of "School's Open Safety Week" Gov. Ogilvie speaks of how successful the patrol has been in protecting youngsters.

Those using the coming Labor Day weekend to make journeys by automobile are urged not to try for any speed records.

If someone takes the right of way that should be yours, let them take it -- and don't fume about it. Keep your temper down. Temper can cause one to make errors and errors can be fatal.

Be courteous, remember the Golden Rule, use your commonsense and you should have a safe holiday.

Hello, There!

Crest Hill city officials held an informal get-together Thursday evening at St. Anne's church basement. Purpose was to have all Crest Hill city employees and officials get to know one another a little better on an informal basis over coffee and rolls.

By the size of the group attending, one could say it was quite a successful venture.

Improving public relations between local employees and city officials is always most helpful in running a city more efficiently with more understanding between departments.

Mayor Frank Berta and his councilmen are to be commended for coming up with this type of venture. This certainly was a unique type of gathering for this area.

Councilman Bob Mulvey greeted persons as they entered and each was given a name tag to write his name and affiliation. Persons were enchanted with his wife who is quite a conversationalist.

Councilman James Ficke was most gracious in pouring coffee for guests and making them feel right at home.

Mayor Berta graciously introduced everyone present especially helpful for those acquainted with just a few Crest Hill officials. There was a real feeling that the group is friendly and sincere in wanting to do the best job possible for their community, Crest Hill.

"Fits you like a glove!"

Poll Tells Voter Views

Congressman Ed Derwinski (R-4th) has released the results of the 1969 poll of the district which reveal that 68.3 per cent of those answering support the development of an ABM system and that 45.1 per cent support the 6-month retention of the 10 per cent surtax.

The questionnaire was mailed throughout the 4th District before congress approved both. "In view of the Congressional debate on both the ABM and tax issues, the results are quite pertinent especially since ours is a complex suburban area possessing a true cross section of our population," Derwinski stated.

"Because of the substantial support for an ABM system, I personally advised both Illinois Senators of the results of this issue," the congressman reported.

"Another significant result," Derwinski pointed out, "was that 92.4 per cent feel that law enforcement efforts are being hindered by court decisions. On the question of lowering the voting age to eighteen, 64.4 per cent responded 'No' in contrast to a 63 per cent 'No' response to the identical question a year ago," he observed.

"On the question of admission of Red China to the United Nations, 70.1 per cent voted 'No', Derwinski revealed. The Congressman also directed attention to the fact that the question on developing a volunteer army to replace the draft when the Viet Nam War ends drew a 47.7 per cent affirmative response.

The questionnaire drew an 18 per cent response from Derwinski's suburban district.

District-wide results of the questionnaire follow.

Across The Editor's Desk

By ANN KARKUT

BAD NEWS KIDS--Your carefree summer vacation comes to a close the end of this week. Right now most every one is concerned with the various parades lined up for the Labor Day weekend. Romeoville has a parade planned for Sunday, Aug. 31. Lemont has its famous Keepataw Days parade Monday, Sept. 1, Labor Day, and Bolingbrook has its parade planned the following week. Many area residents will be involved in one or more of these parades.

So, kids, have a good time this coming weekend as your days are numbered. Most youngsters though are glad to go back to school and welcome the change and challenge. The little ones might not feel quite enthused but as they grow older they realize just how important their school days are.

Teachers' pay is beginning to be on an equal level with other types of employment. There are many dedicated teachers but many more are needed to instill in youngsters the importance of their education. Students are not always to blame for their lack of enthusiasm in the school classroom. If a teacher doesn't generate challenge for a student, he soon loses interest. Students in the upper percentage of their class will always come through but the average students tend to become lackadaisical if not given incentives.

All youngsters are not college material either and this is nothing to be ashamed of as all cannot be chiefs--some Indians are needed also. Every student is important and every student has a certain potential. The teacher who overlooks certain students and concentrates only on his so-called better than average students is missing the boat.

This not only holds true for the teacher-student relationship but in the business world as well. If an employer has respect for his employees he will gain much but if he makes his employees feel inferior he will only receive the minimum required to get the job done.

A GOOD QUESTION came up at last Tuesday's Lockport Township Library board meeting. A Crest Hill resident, Elaine Stonich, asked the board why they did not advertise for bids for the landscaping to be done at the Crest Hill Branch. According to the state statutes, bids must be obtained, she noted.

However, the library board is not the only guilty party as most of the school boards do not advertise for bids but merely ask certain companies to bid on a particular job or piece of equipment. This seems to be standard procedure for most public bodies paid with taxpayers' monies.

Most boards have set a certain sum and under this amount they award contracts without bidding. However, bids have been let on higher priced amounts without advertising for bids.

Library board members said they did not have specifications for the landscaping but invited several persons to bid. Since the landscaping was almost $3,000 it would seem logical to advertise for bids. Perhaps more landscapers in the area would have been interested in this project.

Library board has three letters of intent for a library board member needed to complete their roster. Mrs. Helen Whalen resigned as she has moved out of the district.

Library board wanted a little more time to decide which of the three would be best qualified for the position and will make a decision at its next meeting.

Women Drivers Are Always Being Blamed

By JACKIE FREITAG

Criticism is always made of women drivers, but how many times are women worthy of the critics ill-chosen words to describe them. Being a member of the feminine set, I can see nothing wrong with the way women drive. Matter of fact my biggest complaint is with the men drivers in this country.

To help back up my complaint I have gone through vast experience as a driver and I will sight a few examples of the "great aptitude" of men drivers.

The other day I was driving through a large city, looking for the shopping center, which was located on a one-way street. Great. I knew that I had to get down to the street and could only do it by going a block over. The car in front of me, driven by a man, seemed to have exactly the same idea.

Well, when he put his directional on to turn left I did the same. Little did I know that it was a one-way, do-not-enter type of street. Now my argument consists of the fact that I very innocently followed the MAN in front of me.

I figured that he probably knew where he was going, therefore was safe to assume that I would not be doing something wrong. Well, I found out as traffic was approaching both of us from the opposite direction, that he was wrong. Stupid man. He should watch his signs more carefully.

That was my most recent experience with men drivers. My first problem with them started the day before I took drivers education. I was in the car with my father, also one of them, and I turned a corner to wide, jerked on the wheel and careened to the other side of the street, stopping between two trees.

I still say that if he would not have yelled at me when I started to pull out I never would have had the problems that I did.

That almost cinched my driving career. The next day I faithfully reported to my driving class, only to be assigned a man instructor.

*From A

Well, to make a long story short, I almost put him through the front windshield when I made an emergency stop in the middle of the main street of a village. I told him to wear his seat-belt but he just would not listen to me. You know after that afternoon he always made sure that he was securely strapped into the front seat of the car.

I still think that women drivers are just victims of circumstances when it comes to doing stupid things. The only time something ever goes wrong for me is when there is a man driver around. I have come to the conclusion that men cause the problems and women just take the blame. After all, we don't do those stupid things that we are accused of!

Horner's Oppose Landfill

Editor:

I read the article written by Mrs. Marion Bobholtz and Mrs. Mildred Simmons about them having loved ones buried at Mt. Vernon Cemetery.

We also have loved ones buried in the cemetery there. My brother was buried 12 years ago, my dad nine years ago, and my mother, it will be two years this coming March. Even as late as when my mother passed away there was no mention of a garbage dump being put there.

No, we do not want our loved ones buried in or by a garbage dump. Everyone who has loved ones buried in Mt. Vernon Cemetery should protest the garbage dump, as well as all the homeowners living in the area. I do hope this letter is not too long to print, as I have had it to the hilt with the cemetery in several ways.

I have also been given permission to use the names of my sisters and brothers on this too, so it will be just one letter from our family instead of several.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Eugene Chapman of Lockport, William and Harold Horner of Lemont, Mrs. Virginia Sweet, Mrs. Shirley Wheeler, Mrs. Marjorie Keller, all of Chicago, Mrs. Frances Setterbo of Orland Park, Mrs. Lillie (Horner) Chapman of Palos Hills, and several nieces, nephews and grandchildren.

Editor:

The headline "What About Central School" in the Aug. 13 issue deserves serious consideration, although I'm not in the area of District 91. I agree with your suggestions entirely and regret I cannot offer any of my own.

It is better the children have a good education as their heritage than a tax burden for another 20 years.

Subdivider Under Fire At Lockport City Council

By ANN KARKUT
LOCKPORT -- Three lot owners, Ed Palarcik, John Poulos and Ben Burris, appeared at last Monday's city council session to object to their building permits being held up.

City council, according to its own ordinance, has stopped building permits in the Drake Subdivision until sidewalks are in or a bond is posted.

A lengthy, heated discussion ensued as the owners want their homes under construction. The builder says he cannot start work until the sidewalk issue is cleared.

Gordon McCluskey, director of public works, said Bob Drake notified him that he was getting bids to construct sidewalks in lieu of posting a bond.

To expedite matters, Attorney Gene Korst suggested the owners have the builder post bond. City clerk, Don Murphy, said Drake is responsible to the council, not the builder or lot owner. Drake's plat is recorded in the county court house stating he will provide the sidewalks, according to Murphy.

McCluskey reported on the unsafe buildings. He noted that the building at 1033 S. State had been demolished and removed. According to Eddie Sandbloom, building inspector, the residence at 420 E. 10th St. is structurally sound but is run-down and needs extensive repairs. A garage on the property has been torn down.

Mayor George Nordstrom said Fire Chief Carl Munson told him the building is not a fire hazard because there are no homes close to it. McCluskey asked the board of local improvements to further inspect the building as a follow-up.

Korst said he had not heard from Art Gunderson on the house located at 815 Clinton.

A sidewalk along the I&M Canal has been temporarily blocked, said McCluskey, but a new four-foot sidewalk is being installed. He said he does not foresee any problems when youngsters start school.

Mayor Nordstrom and McCluskey were given permission to attend the Illinois Municipal League Convention the first week of September. Mayor Nordstrom was also authorized to attend the community development conference Sept. 18 sponsored by Northern Illinois Gas at Pheasant Run in St. Charles.

Since Sept. 1 is a holiday, the council will meet Tuesday, Sept. 2, at 7:30 p.m. in city hall.

The Mokena State Bank, which owns the property, has not yet decided what it will do with it but that it will be turned to the bank's use is practically certain.

This building, which was located at 11102 Front St., started life as a store. Later it became a restaurant and put in the rest of its time as a tavern. When it was operated as such by Morry Larson its clientele came from far and near, including politicians from Joliet.

It was sold by Larson to James Surovick and after that it changed hands a couple of times. When the last operator closed his doors a few weeks ago the contents were auctioned and then last week a bulldozer and a shovel made kindling of the wooden structure.

Don Hall, a former resident of Mokena and one time employee of the Semmler Press, and a daughter, Mrs. Wanda Scott, escaped injury when hurricane Camille struck Mississippi City, Miss. Their homes, which are a scant four blocks from the Gulf of Mexico, were damaged but not extensively, according to word received by a daughter here, Mrs. James Cullota.

Relatives here were unable to telephone to Mississippi City. They finally received word from Gilbert Scott, a son of Wanda. He managed to get through and ascertain there was no injury to his mother or grandfather but had to wait until he got back to his home at Hattiesburg, Miss., before he could telephone.

Don Hall and the Scotts live next door to each other but there is quite a space between as they occupy acre sites.

Though Attitudes Negative, You Benefit From Activity

SOUTHWEST -- Americans correctly regard physical fitness as a highly desirable goal, a pastoral counselor has "found--but unfortunately, he added, they do not consider vigorous activity on the part of women as much of a virtue.

As one result of that attitude, according to Dr. Thomas Boslooper, pastor of the Reformed Church, Closter, N.J., many women come to feel that physical activity is "unfeminine" and therefore avoid it, to their own disadvantage. And this becomes a special disadvantage as they become vulnerable to the physical problems of the 40's and 50's, he adds.

Dr. Boslooper reported these observations to the recent annual meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science here after counseling and interviewing more than 300 women and girls and studying classic art and 20th Century American literature over a 10-year period.

The researcher found that in spite of the proliferation of athletic and fitness programs, "society generally does not consider physical activity to be integral to the development of the feminine ideal." Rather, he said, fitness is exclusively associated with men, while women are wrongly depicted as "petite, weak, non-competitive, non-aggressive and passive."

During his counseling, Dr. Boslooper became aware that this "fitness and femininity gap" was contributing to personal problems that were sending women to doctors, psychiatrists and clergymen. But some women, he pointed out, "live healthy and eneremotionally and physically healthy responded positively.

Mature women who complained of unaccountable emotional distress had been very active adolescents, but had steadily slacked off un-ness intrinsic to femininity," he said.

He pointed out, too, that physically active women tended to have fewer complaints about menstruation and menopause, pregnancy and the postpartum period.

Dr. Boslooper took special note of women who derive satisfaction from physical activity, are aware of their physical capability and use it competently, and can handle competition wholesomely and without aggressiveness.

Such women, he observed, tend to live vigorous lives in the same society that produces breakdowns in so many women who have negative or extreme attitudes toward physical vigor. He advised women to select a physical activity that is interesting and rewarding and to pursue it with enthusiasm.

When she combines physical activity with social, cultural and artistic pursuits, he said, she will be providing her muscular, nervous, circulatory and respiratory systems "with the strength they need to function smoothly, her appearance will continue to be more youthful and radiant, and she will have greater zest for living and an inbuilt capacity to cope with the problems of life."

Equally important, he added, such women will be truly feminine and will receive the encouragement and approval of society, their families, and especially their husbands.

getic lives and cope constructively with the problems of life under environmental circumstances similar to those which produce breakdowns in others."

The counselor conducted his interviews with women and girls throughout the United States, from Miss Americas, Olympic athletes and local sport champions to musicians and dancers, secretaries, artists, students, and housewives and mothers.

He found that negative reactions toward fitness came from women who complained of various emotional and physical problems. Women who considered themselves til physical activity became unsatisfactory, minimal or non-existent.

Dr. Boslooper learned that some of these women had followed this course deliberately, attempting to make themselves more "feminine."

Others abandoned activity either because they felt that it was exclusively for the young or failed to recognize that physical play is "a necessary ingredient in the mature stages of life."

The counselor found, on the other hand, that women who are healthy and attractive and who cope well with their problems do not regard physical fitness as a threat. "They consider fit-

Great First And Last Goodies

SOUTHWEST -- When is a brownie not made of chocolate? When it's flavored with nutritious peanuts and honey!

Golden peanut brownies have the sunny taste and color of "bee"-licious honey. Smooth, creamy peanut butter is blended in for extra protein. Chopped peanuts add crunchy texture. These brownies are easy to prepare and can be made by youngsters themselves on a day when summer rain brings play indoors.

They keep well--brownies are a perfect picnic and outdoor party food. They ship well, too, and both men in service and youngsters at camp welcome a package of baked goods from home.

Eacy chewy bite of a peanut brownie is as healthy as it is flavorful with the nutritional bonus of enriched flour. At no cost to you, three essential B-vitamins, thiamine, niacin and riboflavin and the mineral, iron, have been added during milling.

PEANUT BROWNIES

- 1 cup enriched flour*
- 1 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup creamy peanut butter
- 1/4 cup honey
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup salted cocktail, peanuts, chopped

Combine flour, baking powder and salt. In a separate bowl, mix together sugar, peanut butter and honey until smooth. Beat in eggs, one at a time; gradually add flour mixture. Stir in peanuts. Spread in greased 9-inch square pan. Bake in preheated 350 degree oven 20 to 25 minutes, or until cookies begin to shrink from sides of pan. Cool 15 minutes. Cut into squares. Cool completely before removing from pan.

*Spoon flour into dry measuring cup; level. Do not scoop.

NOTE: If self-rising flour is used, omit baking powder and salt.

Washington state potatoes give it body and extra energy-giving nutrients. These extra special potatoes grown in the green valleys of Washington state are in the markets now. Their texture and flavor are ideal for cooking, and being grown in soil rich in minerals, they are extra nutritious, too.

Anti-Wig Husband

Dear Miss Brookfield:

My question is prompted by a mature woman: my wife. Lately, she has been buying the inexpensive wigs now on the market. At night, I never know whether I'll be greeted by a blonde, brunette or redhead--or a wife with long or short hair. When I told her that she is the mother of grown children and to act her age, she didn't speak to me for days. Don't you think I'm right?

D.T., Albany, N.Y.

Dear D.T.:

No. Your wife is trying to look glamorous for you. Try co-operating. Look at her in the different wigs and tell her which ones you think are the most flattering. She's wearing them for you. How would you like it if she greeted you at night wearing hair curlers? Don't be a drip!

Medical Test

On my last visit, my gynecologist told me he took a "maturation index" test. What is this test? I am 54 years old.

R.B., Portland, Ore.

Dear R.B.:

The specific complaint you brought to your gynecologist may have been a menopausal or post-menopausal one. As you know, the test he took is as simple, easy and completely painless as the Pap smear. It is also called the femininity index test. It is used to reflect a woman's hormone level.

When the ovaries stop functioning, there is a lessening of hormones, particularly estrogen, in the woman's body. This hormonal imbalance can cause a number of symptoms: hot flashes, headaches, fatigue, dizziness and a loss of height. Today, however, hormonal imbalance can be corrected with estrogen replacement therapy.

Daughter-in-Law Problem

Dear Miss Brookfield:

I am a mother-in-law. My problem appears to be unsolvable. I have tried my best to get along with my daughter-in-law, without success. She was around the house a good deal before she married my son, but afterwards her behavior changed. For weeks at a time, she did not speak to my husband and me. She never told us why. We never asked. When she felt like it, she returned. We cannot discuss anything with her, the way responsible people do. I believe she hates us and is teaching their child to hate us. I have tried to treat her with kindness and love, but I fail. Please understand: I believe my son's first duty is to his wife and child. But I still think children should honor their parents. She treats others the same way she treats us. Do you think she is sick or just spoiled?

S.Q., Livermore, Calif.

Dear S.Q.:

There are many pressures and tensions in any in-law relationship. It would be difficult to say just what prompts your daughter-in-law's behavior, but experts cite the following as some of the reasons why mothers-in-law are resented: they may represent the ideal that the daughter-in-law can never attain. This is symbolized by a husband who exclaims: "You don't bake pies the way my mother did." Other daughters-in-law lay the blame for a husband's shortcomings on the mother-in-law. Still others feel that the husband wasn't fully appreciated by his mother. ("She never gave Jack the break he deserved.") In some cases, the mother-in-law is a scapegoat. A daughter-in-law angry at her own mother finds it easier to transfer this feeling to a mother-in-law, without a sense of guilt.

Try your best to be as diplomatic as possible. Accept her behavior without criticism. Be friendly, flexible and discreet. You may find the booklet, "How to Be a Good Mother-in-Law and Grandmother" (Pamphlet No. 174) helpful. You can obtain it for twenty-five cents from: Public Affairs Pamphlets, 381 Park Ave. So., New York, N.Y. 10016.

Have you a problem as a mature woman, or with one? For advice and help write to Margaret Brookfield, Information on the Mature Woman, 3 West 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10019.

ucational Laboratory, the Danforth Foundation, the Wichita Public Schools and the Wichita Catholic Diocese. This is the second semester for the program, which has 40 students involved.

"O Perfect Love," "Our Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung during the ceremony by Thomas Wagner, uncle of the groom, accompanied by Mrs. Wilbert Lauffer.

Miss Buck was given in marriage by her father. The bride chose for her wedding a toe touching gown of white silk sat-a-peau with a semi empire fitted bodice and elbow length sleeves. The waist, neckline and edge of the sleeves were accented with scalloped alencon lace and a full swing skirt that fell to a tulip-shape cathedral length train edged with lace.

Mrs. Harry Baker, Jr., Peotone was the matron of honor and Miss Janice Buck, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. They wore toe touching gowns of maize chiffon styled with an empire-fitted bodice, scoop neckline and short pouf sleeves edged with a chiffon ruffle.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Wayne Buck, sister-in-law of the bride, Park Forest; Miss Coralee Krapf, Monee and Miss Darlene Bottorf, Davis, Ill. They were attired identically to the matron and maid of honor.

With a gown styled similar to the bride's and carrying a lace basket filled with petals, Miss Barbara Zielke, cousin of the bride, Stevensville, Mich., served as flower girl.

Attending his brother as best man was Alan Heatherwick of Weatherford, Tex. Groomsmen were Randy Theien, Rockford; Kent Heatherwick, brother of the groom, Orland Park and Dale Bettenhausen, Manhattan.

Steven Philbrick, Peotone, served as ring bearer. Larry Baginske, cousin of the bride, Baroda, Mich., and Ronald Wagner, cousin of the groom, Lockport were ushers.

The bride's mother was attired in a pink linen dress with pink accessories and a corsage of cymbidium orchids with stephanotis.

The groom's mother selected a green linen dress with green accessories and a corsage of cymbidium orchids with stephanotis.

Smit-Frick Vows Said At St. Peter's Altar

FRANKFORT -- Shirley Mae Smit recited nuptial vows July 19, at 7 p.m. in the St. Peter's United Church of Christ with the Rev. LaVern Smith officiating at the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Smit, 1211 W. Court St., Monee. The groom is Walter C. Frick, Jr., son of Mrs. Ann Frick, 1616 N. Prairie Ave., Joliet.

Baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums decorated the altar. Traditional wedding selections were played by Kay McAbee.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an organza white bouffant A-line gown with scalloped neckline, natural waistline with long sleeves and the bodice was made of chantilly lace with a full length chapel train. Tulle and pearl petal flower with pearl trim attached to a two tiered butterfly nylon veil. Her jewelry was a pair of pearl earrings. She carried a cascade of white carnations.

Miss Judith Osmus, maid of honor, wore a full length gown of sheer georgette over taffeta with full length sheer sleeves, high empire waistline trimmed with small bands of orchid and latice lace.

A committee to prepare plans for a new Methodist church and parsonage at the south end of the campground site on U.S. 30, has been named by the administrative board.

Named to the planning committee are Roger Bettenhausen, Robert Grisham, George Mullis, Kenneth Schofield, Mrs. John E. Francis, Mrs. John Meyer, Mrs. James R. Pitcairn and Darrell Turnbough.

The committee was authorized by the charter conference when the following resolution was passed unanimously.

"Resolved, that the administrative board be authorized to set up a planning committee, empowered to take the necessary actions, including expenditure of needed funds, to prepare plans for a parsonage and church building and to present such plans for approval at a future meeting of the congregation."

The administrative board will have its next meeting Oct. 21.

The present church building will eventually be sold, it was said. The village board could be in the market for this property, it has been reported. The present village hall is not large enough to provide all the space needed. It started life as a garage but for a couple of years now has served as the village hall.

Board of Directors At Summit Hill PTO Meet

Marie Hovi
Telephone 479-5740

The first meeting of the board of directors of the Summit Hill Parent-Teachers Organization following the summer will be held at the home of Mrs. William Searles, President, tonight, Wednesday, August 27. All members of the board should try to attend the meeting.

A glaring error was made at the last board meeting in May. On the list of officers and chairman which had been set down for publication, somehow the office of Safety chairman was listed as held by Mrs. Greene. It should have been Mr. Greene.

So sorry, Mr. Greene, it surely wasn't done intentionally, with you being the only man on the board. We promise to take good care of you.

Now that school is about to open, remember we must attend the Parent-Teacher Organization meetings, too. The children enjoy knowing the parents participate in the school affairs. How else will you know all about the coming events we have in store for you?

Danny Louis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Louis on Poplar Street, celebrated his seventh birthday with a special party. His Dad took the party to a miniature golf course and turned them loose to show off their prowess.

Afterwards they returned to the Louis House for the usual birthday fare, cake, ice cream, and soft drinks. Sorry I wasn't invited, but they wouldn't believe I was only seven.

The baseball season ended on Sunday, August 17, with an extra game between the two B Teams. The score was not the usual lopsided one, but the outcome was the same.

Map Football Coverage

By Jeffery A. Rodeghero

SOUTHWEST -- When the 1969 high school football season gets underway in mid-September, the Southwest Graphic will be on hand to provide major coverage of the six high schools in the southwest area. The Southwest Graphic will cover all scheduled home and away games for Joliet Catholic, Lemont, Lincoln-Way, Lockport Central, Lockport West and Providence.

Beginning next week, the Southwest Graphic will run a series of pre-season articles and pictures highlighting these area teams.

As in every season, this 1969 high school football campaign is laden with the "ifs." As one's eye travels up and down the list of the six teams covered by the Southwest Graphic, the "ifs" appear in many vital spots.

For example: If the Lemont Indians can duplicate their fine 4-3-1 record of last season, and if the in-coming juniors can show as much promise on the varsity as they showed last season as sophomores, then Lemont could become a definite threat in the Northeast conference.

If Lockport West can also duplicate their fine 1968 record, which might be mandatory with Joliet West in the same conference, then and only then will a year of glory come to the Spartans.

In the Parochial League, Joliet Catholic is always a football power. And if everything goes right things should be no different this year. The other parochial school is Providence. Two words best describe the Celtics: young and inexperienced. The area's newest team is now into its second season, and it is almost time to stop counting seasons and start counting victories.

The other school in New Lenox is Lincoln-Way. If the Knights put everything together, which they incidentally could do this year, they may be one of the strongest teams in the area.

Last but certainly not least comes Lockport Central. Central already has a defense. What they need now is an offense. The Porters definitely stand a chance in the tough Illini Eight conference, "if" an offense can be found. And that is the biggest if of all.

Pony Races Set

LOCKPORT-- First and only national trotting pony association has been formed in the area. Local club has been named the Pioneer Pony Harness Racing Association.

Officers elected are James Coonan of Joliet, president; Ray Kennedy of Lockport, vice president; Mrs. Dorothy Kennedy of Lockport, secretary-treasurer; and Miss Sharon Coonan of Joliet, race secretary.

Prime purpose of the club is to promote pony racing and develop plans to increase interest in the public, get increased attendance at pony races and encourage the registration of all ponies.

Another item of prime importance was to find a track site so the races could be held.

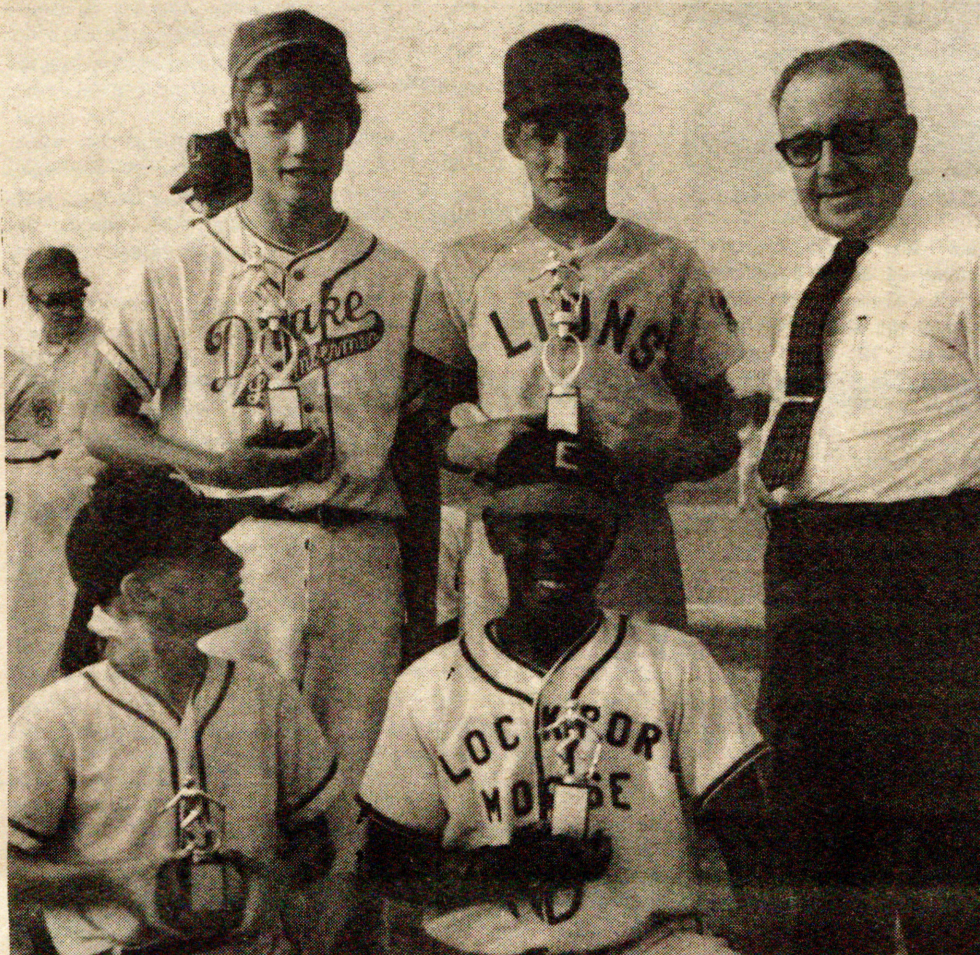

Peotone Fair Board Association, after many meetings, voted to use their fairgrounds as the site and named it Peotone Downs.

Inaugural race date for the Pioneer Pony Harness Racing Association will be held Monday, Sept. 1, Labor Day, at 1 p.m. at Peotone Downs, Rt. 54, in Peotone.

Tentatively, seven races are planned in both the trot and pace classifications. Races are individually classified according to time brackets for one-half mile. Track is a quarter mile so ponies will go around the track twice. Women and children drive the ponies as well as men. Admission is $1.

Fifty members hail from Lockport, Frankfort, Joliet, Mokena, Tinley Park, Claypool, Ind., Harvey, Worth, Chicago Heights, Orland Park, Evergreen Park, Manhattan and Chicago.

JUNIOR LITTLE LEAGUE all stars most valuable players are listed. Kneeling are Roy Broderick, runner up for the National League and Floyd Scott, runner up for the American League. Plans Special Events

SOUTHWEST -- More than 35 of Chicagoland's finest clay track late model stock car drivers are expected to compete at Santa Fe Speedway this weekend.

On Sunday night, Aug. 31, the "Santa Fe 150" -- the longest single auto race in the Chicagoland area--will be held on the half-mile track. On Saturday night, August 30, a 25-mile main event will challenge late model pilots. Both Saturday and Sunday's half-mile racing cards will offer 30-lap main events for sportsman pilots.

Saturday's card begins at 8:30 p.m. while Sunday's holiday fare starts 30 minutes earlier; time trials precede the opening event by one hour.

Don Waldvogel of Lockport, longstanding Santa Fe star who is seeking his first speedway title in 11 years, leads second place Dick Nelson by approximately 150 points; since points can be accumulated only through the third weekend in September, unless Nelson can perform a miracle, Waldvogel will win the coveted Speedway championship and accompanying 1969 Mustang.

Late model pilots who can move up with good performances Saturday and Sunday night include Larry Jackson of Lyons, Bob Kelly of Wheaton, Tony Izzo of Bridgeview, Marty Ridderhoff from Elmhurst and Jim O'Connor out of Kankakee.

Sportsman pilots still battling for top positions include Bill Bottoms of Justice, Larry Robb from La Grange, Ron Fisher out of Westmont, Lyle Zanker of Cicero, Bobby Mann from La Grange, Al Madden and Jerry Kling, both from Lemont and Ed Slamp of Oak Forest.

During the Saturday night program, Santa Fe Speedway fans again will participate in a "Most Popular Late Model and Sportsman Driver" poll. Last year's winners were Dick Nelson for late model pilots and Jerry Kling for sportsman chauffeurs.

Spectator races, a regular Sunday night attraction, will be held instead on Monday night, Sept. 1, with the gigantic Labor Day demolition derby program. Demolition derby festivities, which include woman's powder puff races, sportsman races and "double o" races, as well as rocking-socking team demolition events, will begin at 7:30 p.m.

School Opening Day Set

LEMONT -- Opening day for all school children attending Bromberek School, District 65, on Murphy Rd., will be Tuesday, Sept. 2.

Teachers for the coming year will report to the school on Aug. 27, at which time an institute and classroom work day will be conducted.

Registration for all students will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on Aug. 28. Parents will be able to pay book rental fees of $10, milk cost of $3 per semester, and school insurance of $3.25, which is optional. At this time parents will pick-up the child's classroom assignment, and be able to talk with the teachers.

Physical and dental reports for all new students, and for students entering fifth grade will be due the first day of school.

On Sept. 2 a full school day will be conducted. Bus service will be offered at the regular time, following last year's schedule.

School Opens Sept. 3

LEMONT -- School will officially open for pupils of the Lemont Public School at 9 a.m., on Wednesday, Sept. 3, with dismissal at noon.

School buses will operate on the routes used last year, and will be waiting to take students home at noon. Any necessary changes in the routes will be made as soon as possible.

Letters assigning children to rooms have been mailed by the school. Parents who did not receive such a letter are asked to contact the school office at once, so that children will know where to report on opening day. Physical and dental examinations, are required by state law, must be on file in the office before assignments may be made.

On opening day, kindergarten students will meet only for a very short period with their teacher. After the first day, regular class schedules will begin: kindergarten 1 meets from 8:45 to 10:45 a.m.; the second group meets from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.; and the third group meets from 1:15 to 3:15 p.m.

The new Oakwood School will not be ready for occupancy until later in the school year. When the building is ready, students who will be transferred to the new building will be notified as to date and time. At that time the kindergarten schedule will be changed so that there will be a morning group and an afternoon group at both Oakwood and Central Schools.

New teachers who will be waiting to greet their students include: Mrs. Lareau, grade 1; Mrs. Inman, grade 2; Mrs. Kelley, grade 2; Mrs. Naughton, grade 3; Mr. Castle and Mrs. Landise, grade 4; Miss McCabe and Mr. Hinterberger, grade 6; Mr. Sullivan and Miss Obradovic, junior high; and Mr. Evans and Miss Matz, physical education.
